

PwC event: Environmental reporting

Environmental, social and governance reporting is becoming a core part of the investment decision-making process. Investors need to know what meaningful environmental reporting should look like and what questions they should be asking of management and the board.

Join us for a panel session to hear the latest thinking from PwC experts in environmental reporting and advisory. The panel discussion will be followed by an open Q&A session.

Chair: Hilary Eastman, Head of Global Investor Engagement

Panellists:

Tom Beagent - an impact measurement specialist;

Gordon Wilson - an expert in assurance over non- financial information

Jon Hampson - PwC's internal corporate sustainability specialist.
